

MORTEHOE-TORRINGTON WEDDING

CONIBEAR—EASTMOND.

Howe Congregational Church, Torrington, was crowded on Tuesday for the wedding of Mr. Neville George Conibear, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Conibear, of Glenhaven, Morteheo, and Miss Gwen Eastmond, eldest daughter of Mr. Robert Eastmond, of 4, Potacre-street, Torrington, and the late Mrs. Eastmond.

The bridegroom is a cashier in Barclay's Bank at Devonport, and the bride has been a popular member of Torrington Post Office staff.

The Rev. B. Binding officiated and Mrs. George Copp was the organist. The hymns sung were "Praise My Soul" and "Gracious Spirit." The organist played suitable bridal music.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a graceful gown of plum-coloured marocain, with a black hat, veil-trimmed, black shoes, and a silver fox fur. Mr. Bruce Conibear (the bridegroom's brother) was the best man, and Mr. Peter Mendham (brother-in-law of the bride) and Mr. Leonard Eastmond (brother of the bride) were ushers at the church.

After the reception, which was held in the Congregational Schoolroom, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Conibear left for London for the honeymoon. The bride went away in a bottle-green tweed costume, worn with a hat en suite. The numerous presents included a tea service from the staff of Torrington Post Office, and a clock from the staff of Barclay's Bank, Torrington.
