

MORTE-HOE.

THE marriage took place on the 7th inst. at the Wesleyan Chapel, Chagford, of Mr. William George Conibear, late postmaster of Morte-Hoe, and only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Conibear, Glenavon, and Miss Rose Ellis, third daughter of Mr. Henry Ellis, builder and farmer, of Greatastones, Chagford. The nuptial ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Wakely. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by three bridesmaids—the Misses Mary and Irene Ellis (sisters), and Miss Patrick, of Tiverton. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. W. H. Beer, as best man. After the ceremony a large company was entertained at a wedding breakfast and reception at Greatastones, many friends of the bridegroom from Morte-Hoe attending. A hearty send-off was given to the happy couple on their departure for Plymouth, where the honeymoon is being spent. A large number of valuable and useful presents testified to the esteem entertained for both bride and bridegroom and their respective families.
