

Rowe—Woodhead

The wedding took place at the Halifax Parish Church, on Tuesday, of Sapper Edward Rowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rowe, 123, Huddersfield-road, Halifax, and Miss Margaret Woodhead, daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Sam Woodhead, 21, Pinderfields-road, Wakefield. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. C. B. Kingsford.

The bride, who was given away by Mr. G. D. C. Rose, wore a felicity two-piece costume in melange contlet of Alpine blue. She carried a spray of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

The best man was Sapper J. V. Adamson, and the groomsmen were Mr. H. Rowe and Mr. K. Beecham.

A reception was held at the White Swan Hotel, Halifax, at which over 40 guests were present. The bride's travelling dress consisted of a two-piece suit trimmed with squirrel.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowe are to live at 21, Pinderfields-road, Wakefield.

The bridegroom is an Old Rishworthian, and members of the searchlight detachment, with which he is now serving, were present at the ceremony. Mr. Rowe was previously employed at the shop of William Hutchinson, tobacconist, Southgate, Halifax, of which his father is the owner.
