

ton, Albert Fairchild, Wortley Friend, Ernest and Percy Weekes, Irwin Friend, and Francis Ward.

MORTE-HOE

The funeral of the late Mrs. Anne Conibear has taken place here. Part of the service was held in the Wesleyan Chapel, where the Rev. E. T. Brailsford officiated. The immediate mourners were:—Mr. G. Conibear (son), Mrs. S. Yeo (daughter), Mr. T. Dyer (brother), Mrs. G. Conibear (daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. W. Dyer (nephew and niece), Mr. S. Yeo (son-in-law), Mr. A. Yeo (grandson), and Mr. and Mrs. W. Richards (nephew and niece). Among the general public present were: Messrs. G. Chugg and N. Nethercott, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lamprey, Mrs. Sparks, Messrs. P. Chugg, J. Chugg, T. Western, G. Gammon, F. Beer, J. Richardson, W. Pile, A. Slee, W. Symons, and H. Relve, Mr. and Mrs. P. Pickards, Mrs. B. Smith, Mrs. E. Spencer, Miss N. Cocks, and Mrs. Anslow. The bearers were Messrs. S. Nicholls, W. Watts, G. Yeo, J. Anslow (J. Barnes, F. Miles, R. Nethercott, G. Bennett, and G. Smalldon. Wreaths were sent by the following: Husband, George, and Rose; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dyer; Mr. Robt. Nethercott; From all at Woolacombe Bay Lodge; Mr. and Mrs. A. Yeo; the Misses A. M. Gammon and N. E. Mitchell; Miss E. Nicholls; Miss B. Smith; Mr. and Mrs. J. and L. Sparkes; deceased's grandchildren; son and daughter; Mr. and Mr. Chas. T. Fische; Mrs. D. Smith and sisters; Mr. and Mrs. Fowler (Croyde); and Mr. and Mrs. F. Niles. The coffin was of unpolished oak with mountings, and bore the inscription: "Ann Conibear, died March 17th, 1914, aged 73 years."

Obituary for Ann (Dyer) Conibear, MORTE-HOE

Clipped By:
adam0367
3 Mar 2025